Skate Or Die

A group show curated by Joe Kral

Fifty artists were invited to create original artwork on blank skateboards, the only rule being that the artwork must have a skull in it.

All of the skateboards are for sale and 100% of the proceeds will be donated to the Faribault Skatepark Association, which is in the process of building a skatepark in Joe Kral's hometown, Faribault, MN.

What is your favorite word? Word.

What is your least favorite word? I don't even know.

What turns you on creatively, spiritually or emotionally?
A lot of different things do at different times depending on where I am or what I am doing. But I get the most inspired by my friends on a daily basis.

What turns you off? Haters, and uptight people.

What is your favorite curse word? Probably fuck or bitch or something. Just for the verbiage of the word bitch and fuck is just part of my language like dude, like, hell and hyphey.

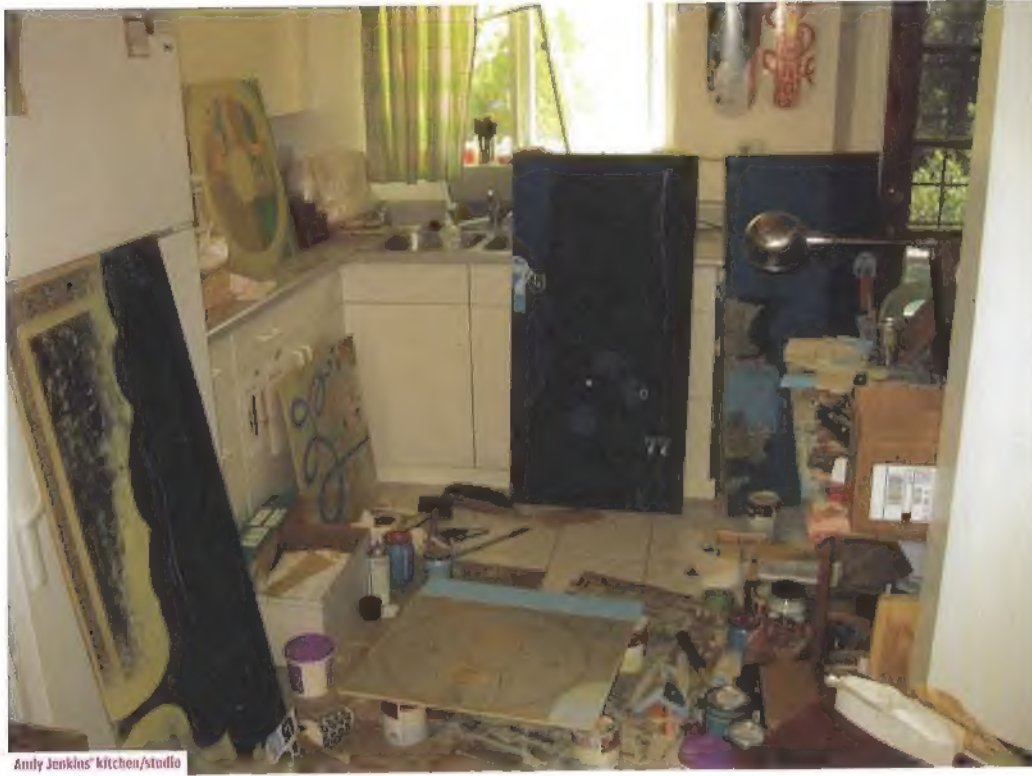

What sound or noise do you love? The bass.

What sound or noise do you hate? My alarm clock.

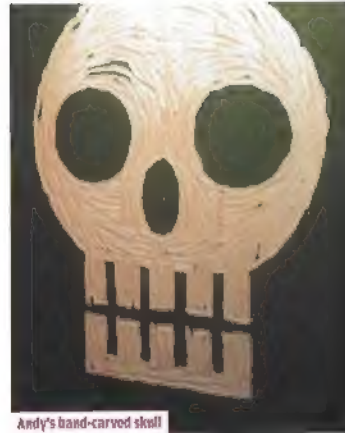

What profession other than your own would you like to attempt? National Geographic photographer, or any job that allows me to travel a lot to interesting places.

What profession would you not like to do? Bum.

If Heaven exists, what would you like to hear God say when you arrive at the Pearly Gates? Oh so this is a random question and its kinda weird but I would be bummed if I got to heaven and all that happened was that God said something to me. I hope at that point I am flying communicating with some crazy mind shit, cruising thru space or something tight.
